Re: Joint Petition of PAETEC Corp. and American Long Lines, Inc. for Approval of the Transfer of Ownership
Docket No. 05-00011

Dear Counsel,

In order to more fully analyze the above-referenced transaction between PAETEC ("PCI") and American Long Lines, ("Long Lines"), the Staff of the Tennessee Regulatory Authority will require more information. Please provide the information requested below. Consider this as Data Request No. 1. A rapid response will enable the Staff to review your petition more expeditiously. Please provide your responses by February 14, 2005

1. Provide the most current audited financial statements for PCI.
2. Provide for approval a copy of the customer letter that is to be sent thirty days prior to the actual transfer of customers. This letter must include all provisions of Authority Rule 1220-4-1-.56(d), which may be found on our website.
3. Are any Long Lines management personnel being kept on Staff?
4. Confirm that Long Lines will file to eliminate its CCN and that PCI will operate under its current CCN.
5. Provide a copy of PCI's current license to do business as a foreign company, issued by the Tennessee Secretary of State in Tennessee
6. Provide an updated description of PCI's technical and managerial qualifications, which was last filed in 1998.
7. How many customers does Long Lines have in Tennessee? How many customers will Long Lines and PCI have in total after consummation of the transaction?

If you have any questions or comments, please call David McClanahan at 615-741-2904, ext 177. Please respond by sending an original and 13 copies to.
